(Telephone voicemail messages received via my Mott's email). If you haven't received a response from your sent email, check the sent to verify your email was sent to me.
- Saturday and Sunday – Please be aware that email access is limited over the weekend. Sundays are my designated day off. I will respond to emails as soon as I am available, and you can expect a response within 48 hours.

TEXTBOOK REQUIREMENTS:

Textbook is required at the beginning of the course and will be used throughout the course.

Technology for Success and The Shelly Cashman Series® Microsoft® 365® & Office® 2021, by Sandra Cable, Joy L. Starks, Misty E. Vermaat, Jennifer T. Campbell, Mark Ciampa, Barbara Clemens, Steven M. Freund, Ralph Hooper, Ellen Monk, Susan Sebok, Lisa Ruffolo, 1st Edition, 2023 Copyright, ISBN 13: 978-0-357-67692-9 or 978-0-357-67737-7 (e-book).. Textbook information is available under Help & Resources in Canvas. Textbook Publisher, Textbook Publisher Cengage.

Technology for Success and Microsoft 365 and Office 2021.

Required Technology:

This course relies on the Windows operating system and the Microsoft Office 2021 (Office 365) productivity suite. These are installed in all academic computer labs on all campuses. See Help & Resources in Canvas for free download. Mac users can install Office, but the Mac version does not offer Access. For this a PC may be required or Mac users can use Parallels software (if owned) to emulate a PC or use the college VDI system described under Help & Resources in Canvas. Carefully read over the VDI instructions to understand VDI and saving your files before signing off of VDI.

*If you are a Chromebook or Mac user, see Help & Resources on instructions using VDI (Access to Mott's network) to complete assessments or use Mott's computer Labs.
Any issues with VDI, contact the Help desk at 810-762-4357 or email at 2help@mcc.edu.

ACCESS TO MICROSOFT OFFICE 365:

On Mott home page MCC4ME, search 'eSUPPORT', down the webpage click on the eSupport link. Then you will directed to the eSUPPORT page and on the right side of the page you will see the link for Microsoft Office 365 (free for students). Make sure to use your Mott email. Any issue contact the Help Desk at 810-762-4357.

Course Description:

This course will introduce students to computers and their use. Students will learn the names and functions of the parts of a computer. They will become familiar with the general categories of computer software. In the hands-on component of the course, students will become comfortable with basic computer processes and procedures. They will be introduced to several software programs and will use e-mail and the internet.

Course Objectives Outcomes:

- Name the parts, uses and functions of a computer.
- Describe the basic software categories.
- Define common file extensions.
- Demonstrate basic network knowledge.
- Demonstrate the ability to startup and shut down the computer.
- Use navigation tools (scroll bars, resize button, minimize buttons, etc.)
- Use file management applications (Windows)
- Use an operating system to find/locate files.
- Identify the types and functions of ports on a computer.
- Access operating system and application help screens.
- Use e-mail to send and receive messages.
- Produce an e-mail with an attachment.
- Use an Internet browser to search for information.
- Use an Internet browser to download files.
- Use a word processor to produce a document.
- Use a word processor to modify an existing document.
- Use word processor page formatting options.
- Use a spreadsheet application to produce a spreadsheet.
- Use a spreadsheet application to modify an existing spreadsheet.
- Use functions to produce results.
- Produce graphs of results.
- Change characteristics of existing graphs.
- Use table auto format.
- Use additional spreadsheet formatting tools.
- Use a database application to create a new database structure with/without a wizard.
- Use a database to open and modify an existing database.
- Use a wizard to design a form for data input.
- Use a query to select desired information from a table.
- Produce a report based on query results.
- Use presentation software to produce a new presentation with/without a wizard.
- Manipulate the appearance of a presentation slide.

COURSE POLICIES

College Technology: Should the college experience a widespread technology failure for a period of 24 hours or more, please go to our secondary site: https://sites.google.com/view/mccitbackup. This site remains offline unless there is a widespread failure. Save a copy of this syllabus to your computer to retain this address. Directions on how we will work around the issue will be posted to that site.

Late Enrollment: Students who enroll in this course after the first day of the term must reach out to the instructor within 24 hours to discuss what may have been missed and how to get up to speed with the rest of the class.

Attendance Policy: The Attendance Learning Survey must be completed online each week by the required due date and time. It is your responsibility to ensure the survey is completed in order to receive attendance credit. No late extension for Attendance Learning Survey.
To receive attendance, you must complete the survey and submit graded activities. If no graded activities are submitted in Canvas, attendance will not be recorded.
Please note that the instructor follows Mott Community College and Financial Aid attendance policies.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) and the Internet Policy: Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools are encouraged for learning and study purposes, such as exploring course materials, conducting research, and understanding concepts. However, the use of AI for graded activities, including assessments, quizzes, exams, projects and discussion questions is strictly prohibited unless explicitly stated otherwise on that specific assignment/activity. Any instance of using AI inappropriately will be considered a violation of academic integrity and will follow the cheating policy listed in this syllabus.

All graded activities should be fully prepared by you, in your own words. Developing strong competencies in the skills associated with this course—will help prepare you for success in your degree pathway and ultimately, in your career. Additionally, copying and pasting from the Internet/AI will be considered a violation of academic integrity and will follow the cheating policy listed in this syllabus.

If you have any questions about what constitutes a violation of this policy, please feel free to contact me.

Thank you for your commitment to academic integrity.

Grading Policy: Late Submission Policy
All graded activities, including learning activities and assessments, are expected to be submitted by the posted due date and time.
Quizzes cannot be made up, and no late exception will be granted.
Any learning activities and assessments submitted late will incur a 3% deduction per day, for up to five (5) days after the due date. Late submissions are only accepted within this five-day late period.
After five (5) days, no late submissions will be accepted, and no exceptions will be made. Once the late period has ended, the submission link will no longer be available.

It is the student's responsibility to plan accordingly and ensure all graded activities are submitted
It is your responsibility to plan your schedule accordingly to meet all deadlines.

The following grading policy will apply:

- Once a graded activity has been submitted into the Canvas Dropbox it is considered that it is ready for grading and may be graded prior to the due date.
- Once an assessment has been graded, it will not be regraded. Review the assessment rubric on grading requirements to avoid any loss of points.
- Graded activities submitted past the due date will not be graded and the gradebook will reflect a zero grade after the 5-day late period. This policy is in place to maintain fairness and consistency in the assessment process.
- Artificial Intelligence (AI) use or copy-and-pasting content from the Internet is not permitted and will result in a zero grade due to plagiarism or academic dishonesty. All submitted work must be completed independently, in your own words, and by you.

If you believe your situation warrants reevaluation, you must submit a formal request outlining the specific grounds for the exception in an email to the instructor within two days of grading comments.

Assessments/Quizzes: All graded activity and assessments must be submitted to the associated drop box in Canvas. Make sure to review the grading rubric and validate your assessments submission in Canvas before the due date for each graded activity.

Student Responsibility: It is your responsibility to verify that you have properly submitted the assessments and quiz for grading before the due date. Go to your 'Grades' in Canvas to verify your submission on the file link in your gradebook to validate correct file has been attached for graded in the proper link and view the file submitted is correct.

There are unlimited attempts to resubmit an assessment to Canvas before the due date/time and before it has been graded.

If you anticipate challenges in meeting a due date or have concerns about the submission process, I encourage you to reach out to me as soon as possible and prior to the weekend and the due date. Open communication is essential, and I am here to assist you

Also, if you resubmit after the due date/time, it will be marked late and there will be a zero grade in your gradebook since Canvas uses the last submission for grading.

Because of the Internet, there is no extension for school closures.

 All Student Data Files from Text needed for the Learning Activity Textbook Assessment and in the Help & Resources for Student Data Files Textbook in Canvas. Also, can be found in the Learning Activities Information section each week.

Late Policy:	All assessments are due on their assigned due date. Please note that submissions made after 11:59:01 PM will be considered late, even if submitted just seconds past the deadline. Canvas tracks submission times to the exact second, and any late submission will automatically receive a grade of zero after the 5-day late exception policy. To avoid loss of points, plan to submit well before the deadline. Additionally, the submission link may close shortly after the due date, and late submissions may not be accepted. Students are responsible for ensuring their work is submitted on time. Do not wait until the last minute, as technical issues will not excuse late submissions. If you are having trouble with an assessment and need help, contact the instructor 24 hours prior to the due date to avoid late points or loss of grading points, before the due date at cynthia.holland@mcc.edu. (Remember, it is required to use your Mott email when emailing instructor). Canvas emails are not accepted.

Withdrawal Policy: Students who withdraw from the class are recommended to see a counselor in the Counseling center, PCC2030. Students are still required to complete a class schedule worksheet PDF document form listing the classes from which they are withdrawing by the withdraw deadline date.

NE Grades Instructors may assign an "NE" grade, used only for students who never engage in a course, which means they never submit gradable work and never attend any scheduled class meetings (whether they be online meetings or in person).

Cheating: Giving files or sharing papers is not an acceptable form of help. Plagiarism is also considered cheating. If you are caught cheating, you will be given a zero on the assignment and your instructor reserves the right to give you a zero in the assessment/course and notify the dean of this concern and the registrar office will be notified of a violation of academic integrity.

How to Get the Most Out of This Learning Experience:

Below are a few simple steps that will make this learning experience even better:

- Take charge of your own learning. Raise questions, prove, explore, go after what you need
- Be open. Use your imagination, consider new possibilities, and create something new for yourself
- Give as well as receive. Assist and work collaboratively with co-learners and be prepared to receive a great deal from them
- Have fun!! Plan to thoroughly enjoy this opportunity to learn and to grow in your professional competence and satisfaction .

COLLEGE POLICIES

Title IX and Pregnant & Parenting Students:

Consistent with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Mott Community College must provide pregnant, and parenting students support and reasonable modifications to prevent sex discrimination and ensure equal access to MCC's educational programs and activities. Any student seeking reasonable modifications must contact the Title IX Coordinator to discuss appropriate and available adjustments based on their individual needs. With medical documentation from a healthcare professional, the modifications may include providing a larger classroom desk or access to a designated lactation room, allowing frequent trips to the restroom, permitting temporary access to elevators, providing opportunities for making up missed work, allowing the student to submit work after a missed deadline due to absence related to pregnancy or childbirth, providing a leave of absence for a period of time, or other reasonable adjustments that may be needed.

For more information about your rights pursuant to Title IX contact the Title IX Coordinator at (810) 762-0024 or email at titleix@mcc.edu.

Visit the Title IX website at www.mcc.edu/titleix.

Care Team:

If you or someone you know needs support, is distressed, or exhibits concerning behavior, help by making a referral to the Care Team. The Mott Community College Care Team is committed to improving the safety and well-being of the college community through proactive and supportive interventions. As your instructor, I may contact the Care Team to seek support for you. I encourage you to fill out a referral if you or a classmate are in need of help. You may contact the Care Team by reporting a concern at www.mcc.edu/care. You can also contact the Care Team by calling (810) 762-0331.

In case of an emergency, please call 9-1-1.

Disability Services:

Mott Community College is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all programs, services and activities and adheres to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act (1973) and the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended (2008) to provide effective auxiliary aids and services for qualified students with documented disabilities. Requests for accommodations by students with disabilities may be made by contacting Disability Services at 810-232-9181 or on the web at disability.mcc.edu. Once your eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, you will be issued an Instructor Notification Letter. Please present Instructor Notification Letters to instructors at the start of the semester and/or two weeks prior to the accommodation date (test, project, etc.). Requests received after this date will be honored whenever possible but cannot be guaranteed.

Civility Statement:

Mott Community College is committed to the highest standards of academic and ethical integrity, acknowledging that civility and respect of self -and others - are the foundation of educational excellence.

Incompletes:

A student must initiate a request for an "I" (Incomplete Grade) from an instructor. The "I" will be given at the sole discretion of the instructor.

Instructors electing to give an "I" will complete an Incomplete Grade Form by the time final course grades are due. This form will specify what the student must do to complete the course requirements. It will specify a date by which the required work must be completed. The Incomplete Grade Form will indicate the grade the student will receive if the assigned work is not completed. Both the student and the instructor will sign the form. Copies will be provided to the Registrar, the student, the instructor and the Division Office. Responsibility for monitoring and grading the "I" work may not be transferred to another instructor without an agreement of the faculty involved and the approval of the Academic Dean.

Note: A course with an incomplete ("I") grade is not included in the GPA. The GPA will be recalculated when the grade is changed.

School Closings/Cancellation

Up-to-date closing information is available from the following sources:

Emergency Notification System:
In the event of any on-campus emergency a voice or SMS (text message) will be sent. All MCC Students, Faculty and Staff are encouraged to sign-up for this notification.

College Social Media:
Find us on:
Mott Community College on Facebook @MottCommunityCollege
MottCollege@Twitter Twitter @MottCollege
Mott Community College on Instagram, Instagram @mottcommunitycollege.

Notifications can be managed through MCC4me > My Mott Apps > Account Manager.

Student Email Notification:
Students will be notified through their MCC Webmail address of specific class cancellation, site-specific closings, or college-wide closings.

Call (810) 232-8989 for a recorded message announcing a school closing. Area radio and television stations will be alerted whenever a decision is made to close the school.

Disaster Recovery

In the event of a computer failure at Mott elimination access for a lengthy period of time (24hrs +), go to https://sites/google.com/viewmccitbackup and click on your instructor's name to view the directions and alternate contact information. This alternative 'disaster' site only comes online during the periods of an extended computer system issue at Mott.

Practicing Civility at Mott Community College

Mott Community College is committed to the highest standards of academic and ethical integrity, acknowledging that civility and respect of self – and others – are the foundation of educational excellence.

If you have information related to another employee or student, please call and report this to the Department of Public Safety (DPS) at 810-762-0222. This information will be confidentially managed to ensure only those with a need to know are informed.

You can help by not engaging others who do not have a need to know and by refraining from open dialogue or discussion about individual employee or student medical status. For employees, generally, those with a need to know are an employee's supervisor, certain members of Administration, and human resources. For a student, generally, those with a need to know are the student's faculty, Dean, and certain members of Administration. Your help and consideration will help us as a campus community ensure we treat all members with dignity and respect.

The College will take reasonable precautions to protect health information, pursuant to all applicable laws and statutes, including, but not limited to, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) and the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA).

DISCLAIMER:

This syllabus may change! Even though I would like to keep our class exactly as stated in the syllabus, things may change. We may have technology problems or decide to spend more time on a unit, or even develop another unit based on student interest. Point values may change. A vote of participating students will be taken before any changes are made and those changes will be communicated via Canvas.
