COMI-160-WWW01	Intro to Computer Information Systems 3 Credit Hours Meetings: Online

COMI-160-WWW01: INTRO TO COMPUTER INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Winter Semester 2026

Course Information:

Course Name	Intro to Computer Information Systems
Course Number	COMI-160-WWW01
Credit Hours	3
Prerequisites	None. This class includes both theory and applied practice. Limited computer skills will be assumed and required.
Course Meetings	Distance learning: No regular, synchronous, required Zoom sessions
Book Requirements	Discovering Computers 17th ed. – Comprehensive, Campbell, Cengage Pub. ISBN 9780357675366 Purchase at college bookstore https://mcc.ecampus.com/course-list?sbc=1&c=7211398
Technology	This class is based on a Windows PC but can accommodate Macs and Chromebooks.. Microsoft Office 2021 (for PC or Mac). The class cannot be completed only on a phone or iPad/tablet

Professor:	Bruce Chalmers
E-mail address:	bruce.chalmers@mcc.edu
Office: Online
Office Phone:	810-235-5874
Office Hours:	Via e-mail and by virtual appointment
Division Chair:	Robert Benard Robert.benard@mcc.edu 810-762-0095
Division Educational Consultant (leader):	Dr. Rebecca Myszenski Rebecca.Myszenski@mcc.edu 810-762-0500

Course Access:

From your web browser, access the following URL: http://canvas.mcc.edu

Course Objectives:

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Describe the historical foundations and development of computers.

- Describe computer hardware and processing components.
- Describe computer networking and related security issues.
- Describe Internet use, including related privacy and security issues.
- Describe computer system software and utility programs.
- Describe computer applications and mobile apps software.
- Describe the system and software development process
- Describe how computers are used in business and society, including related privacy and security issues.
- Describe how technology affects society.
- Comply with standard business behavior and expectations (as described in the syllabus)
- Use the library databases and Internet to conduct academic research at valid sites. (Given a search goal, identify, categorize, and search the most appropriate resources used by computer, networking, and information technology professionals.)
- Develop independent learner skills
- Develop and adhere to standard business behavior and expectations (as described in the syllabus)

Course objectives are assessed using a variety of evaluation techniques, including requirement compliance, homework submission, quizzes and tests, projects, and presentations.

Course Description:

A lecture/lab course providing a survey of data processing and computers in business. Topics include computer hardware, computer arithmetic and codes, input/output devices, networking and Internet, business use of computers, application software, data classifications and structures, programming languages and societal/ethical implications of computers.

Grading for the class

You are responsible to check your grades in the Grades tab regularly and let me know if you see a discrepancy. I will not take offense..

- Resubmission of an assignment is allowed only if requested by the teacher. Although resubmissions are
- Due dates are listed in numerous places in Canvas.
- Extra credit opportunities are listed in Canvas.

Grading Scale

Grade	Requirement
4.0	90 -100%
3.5	85 – 89%
3.0	80 – 84%
2.5	75 – 79%
2.0	70 – 74%
1.5	65 – 69%
1.0	60 – 64%
0.0	59% or less

Percent scores are not rounded. Therefore, 89.99% is considered 89%.

This course does have due dates.

Course Schedule – Schedule COMI160-WWW01 15wk Sched W26 is in Canvas

Assignments Assignment information is posted in the corresponding unit in Canvas. These are the major assignment categories:

- Chapter reading quizzes (Not timed. Only one attempt)
- Several discussion boards on various topics
- Performance actvities with auto-grading or file submission
- Midterm and final exams (timed)
- Take-home final exam
- Professional development activity
- Job portfolio

Late Policy Assignments are due on their stated due date. There will be no exceptions for late work. If you are having troubles, contact your instructor before assignments are late. Since you are given all dates well in advance, there should not be any need for a make-up policy. Canvas will automatically deduct 3% per day so that you are late, up to a maximum of 50%. Because of the Internet, there is no extension for school closures.

Incompletes: A student must initiate a request for an "I" (incomplete) grade from the professor. An Incomplete grade is NOT automatically given and will be given at the sole discretion of the professor. Typically, an "I" will be given only when the student has:

- Completed at least 75% of the class (excluding the final exam) but is unable to complete the class work because of extraordinary, unusual or unforeseen circumstances or other compelling reasons.
- Has done passing work in the course.
- In the professor's judgment, the student can complete the required work without repeating the course.

Attendance Policy:

Attendance Policy Attendance is taken by completing the weekly learning survey in Canvas and due by Friday night 11:59 p.m. EST. Failure to submit the weekly learning survey by Friday's results in being marked absent for the week - no exceptions! The instructor follows the Mott Community College and Financial Aid attendance policy. These are time-released weekly survey that you must take to verify your attendance for each week. Failure to submit the weekly learning survey by Friday @ 11:59 p.m. Failure to submit attendance results in being marked absent for the week - no exceptions!

Federal guidelines require the college to keep attendance records in order for students to maintain their Title IV fund eligibility. Excessive absences may affect that eligibility.

Academic Dishonesty:

Students are expected to adhere to the Academic Integrity policies at Mott Community College. These policies include cheating, fabrication, facilitating academic dishonesty, and plagiarism. Any violation of these policies will result in disciplinary action. For more information, access the following web site: http://www.mcc.edu/policies/student_acad_integrity.shtml

Generative AI Policy:

All assignments should be fully prepared by the student. Developing strong competencies in the skills associated with this course will prepare you for success in your degree pathway and, ultimately, a competitive career. Therefore, the use of generative AI tools, such as ChatGPT, to complete any aspect of assignments for this course are not permitted and will be treated as plagiarism. If you have questions about what constitutes a violation of this statement, please contact me.

Withdrawal Policy:

Dropping a class during the semester is also referred to as Withdrawal from a course. This is the responsibility of the student. A student may withdraw from a class at any time prior to the 90% point of the semester or session. A withdrawal before the "Date of Record" means there is no record of enrollment. A withdrawal after the "Date of Record" but before the last week of the semester means a "W" grade. A "W" grade will be listed on the student's grade report/transcript if the withdrawal occurs after the Date of Record as listed on the Academic/Registration Calendar at the end of the syllabus.

Students must follow this procedure to officially discontinue enrollment in a particular course. To withdraw, a student must fill out the Class Schedule Worksheet form and file it with the Career & Enrollment Center.
Students who decide not to attend classes must drop these classes themselves.
Classes are not automatically dropped for non-attendance.
To be eligible for a tuition refund, classes must be dropped within the tuition refund dates, which are listed in the Academic/Registration Calendar at the end of the syllabus.

Disaster Recovery:

In the event of a computer system failure at Mott eliminating access for a lengthy period of time (24hrs +), go to https://sites.google.com/view/mccitbackup and click on your professor's name to view directions and alternate contact information. This alternative 'disaster' site only comes online during the periods of an extended computer system issue at Mott.

Bookstore

Mott Community College's bookstore services are provided by eCampus.com, an online provider. The official MCC bookstore landing is at https://mcc.ecampus.com.

Title IX and Pregnant & Parenting Students

Consistent with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Mott Community College must provide pregnant and parenting students support and reasonable modifications to prevent sex discrimination and ensure equal access to MCC's educational programs and activities. Any student seeking reasonable modifications must contact the Title IX Coordinator to discuss appropriate and available adjustments based on their individual needs. With medical documentation from a healthcare professional, the modifications may include providing a larger classroom desk or access to a designated lactation room, allowing frequent trips to the restroom, permitting temporary access to elevators, providing opportunities for making up missed work, allowing the student to submit work after a missed deadline due to absence related to pregnancy or childbirth, providing a leave of absence for a period of time, or other reasonable adjustments that may be needed.

For more information about your rights pursuant to Title IX contact the Title IX Coordinator at (810) 762-0024 or email at titleix@mcc.edu.

Visit the Title IX website at www.mcc.edu/titleix.

Care Team:

If you or someone you know needs support, is distressed, or exhibits concerning behavior, help by making a referral to the Care Team. The Mott Community College Care Team is committed to improving the safety and well-being of the college community through proactive and supportive interventions. As your instructor, I may contact the Care Team to seek support for you. I encourage you to fill out a referral if you or a classmate are in need of help. You may contact the Care Team by reporting a concern at www.mcc.edu/care. You can also contact the Care Team by calling (810) 762-0331.

Disability Services:

Mott Community College is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all programs, services and activities and adheres to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act (1973) and the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended (2008) to provide effective auxiliary aids and services for qualified students with documented disabilities. Requests for accommodations by students with disabilities may be made by contacting Disability Services at 810-232-9181 or on the web at disability.mcc.edu. Once your eligibility for an accommodation has been determined, you will be issued an Instructor Notification Letter. Please present Instructor Notification Letters to instructors at the start of the semester and/or two weeks prior to the accommodation date (test, project, etc). Requests received after this date will be honored whenever possible but cannot be guaranteed.

Civility Statement:

Mott Community College is committed to the highest standards of academic and ethical integrity, acknowledging that civility and respect of self -and others - are the foundation of educational excellence.

College Closings:

Up-to-date closing information is available from the following sources:

Emergency Notification System:

As a member of the MCC Community you are initially set to receive (opted-in) notifications as both a voice and text message. In the event of any on-campus emergency a voice or SMS (text message) will be sent. Notifications can be managed through MCC4me > My Mott Apps > Account Manager.

Student Email Notification:

Students will be notified through their MCC Webmail address of specific class cancellation, site-specific closings, or college-wide closings. Call (810) 232-8989 for a recorded message announcing a school closing. Area radio and television stations will be alerted whenever a decision is made to close the school.

Student Resources:

- Writing Center – 810-762-0229 - The Writing Center is sponsored by the Humanities Division and provides one-on-one assistance to students, faculty and MCC staff with any writing project, from understanding assignments and gathering information, to developing ideas and tightening documents. We believe that writing is a social process, and the Writing Center serves as a place and catalyst to enable that process. https://www.mcc.edu/humanities/wc_index.shtml

- Math Empowerment Center – 810-762-0178 The Math Empowerment Center (MEC) was established to offer free math support to MCC students. https://www.mcc.edu/science_math/sc_math_empowerment.php
- ITS Help Desk – 810-762-4357 Located in CM 1208 for password reset, Canvas technical assist, and minor computing technical aid
- eSupport.mcc.edu – Tips and Tricks, Troubleshooting and Tutorials available online for students. https://www.mcc.edu/eSupport/index.php
- Library - https://www.mcc.edu/library/lib_onlineResources.php
- Computer Labs - https://www.mcc.edu/its/its_comp_hours.shtml
- Tutoring: https://www.mcc.edu/tutoring/tu_index.shtml
- Learning Center: https://learningcenter@mcc.edu 810-762-0399
- Testing Center: https://testingcenter@mcc.edu 810-762-0406

"NE (Never Engage)" Grade:

Instructors may assign an "NE" grade, used only for students who never engage in a course, which means they never submit gradable work and never attend any scheduled class meetings (whether they be online meetings or in person).

15 week Semester Dates:

Important College Dates to Keep in Mind:

Students are reminded that there are some key dates that are important to pay attention to that fall outside of your course project deadlines. These dates are shared with you here.

Academic/Registration Calendar – Winter 2026

Registration Opens: 11-1-25
First Day of Classes: 1-10-26
Add with Faculty Consent: 1-10-26
Backpack Registration Closes: 1-16-26
Registration Advisement Closes: 1-16-26
Last Day to Drop with Full Refund: 1-16-26
MLK Holiday College Closed: 1-19-26
No Classes, Faculty In-Service: 1-20-26
Last Day to Drop with Half Refund: 1-20-26
Last Day to Change to Audit Status: 3-20-26
Spring Break: 3-2-26 to 3-8-26
Midterm Date: 3-20-26
Last Day to Drop with a W: 4-28-26
Last Day of Classes: 5-05-26
Final Grades Due: 5-07-26

*If the course has already met, registration requires faculty signature for:

- Students who have 12 earned credits or less
- Have a G.P.A. lower than a 2.0
- Course is considered developmental (below 100 level)

- You have not registered for at least one 15-week class prior to the start of the semester

Disclaimer:
THIS SYLLABUS MAY CHANGE!
Even though I would like to keep our class exactly as stated in the syllabus, things may change. Any changes to the syllabus will be announced in Canvas and a message via e-mail will be sent to the MCC address and the syllabus in Canvas will be replaced with a new one including the changes.